Reading Arabic and reciting the Quran correctly is a difficult task in itself. Qurnic Lessons was started to provide Arabic and Quran education through an interactive online environment.

The goal is to give students a chance to not only understand the language, but to excel at it. Yet excellence can only be achieved through regular practice that fits into an active lifestyle.

Quranic Lessons experienced, high-quality instructors offer this education through personalized, one-on-one, online sessions that are suitable for the entire family — including some of the best online Quran classes for kids.

Quranic Lessons instructors are second to none in the Islamic community. Each online Quran tutor has graduated from Al-Azhar University in Cairo. The institution's tradition of learning and nurturing faith has a rich 1,000-plus year history.

These tutors are fully versed in the best methods to teach and learn Arabic and the Quran online, furthermore, giving them the skills needed to help any student of any age.
